Jeddah is one of the old cities, occupied more than 3.000 years ago, as registered by some resources. Others think that it is the second occupied place in the world as it contains Eve's (Mother of mankind) grave.

But whatever the experts say's Jeddah has obtained its current important due to Caliph Otman Bin Affan who on-behave of Caliph Omer Bin Al Khatab (Allah May Bless Them) chose it to be the gate of Makkah.

Jeddah's historic area still holds its fragrant, authenticity of its inhabitants and the professionalism and genius as well as the affection and the pill and brotherhood among themselves.

Its Buildings expresses a great creativity of an urban heritage with its crafted Doors, Roshans, and Mashrabiahs, giving it a bestow beautiful breathtaking in its composition.
